

The URC presents

THE MEANING OF OUR CORE VALUES

OUR CORE VALUES

The URC's core values are in place to ensure that all our members know what values they are expected to possess as people as well as breeders.

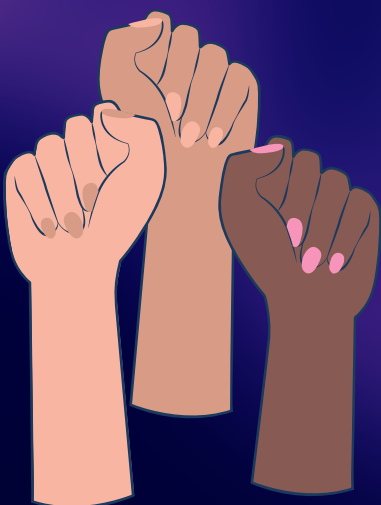

INTEGRITY

The URC values people who believe in honesty and integrity. All members are expected to uphold moral principles that are in line with those of the URC.

PROFESSIONALISM

The URC values people who conduct themselves in a professional manner. All members are expected to conduct themselves professionally when interacting online and in person.

TOLERANCE

The URC values people who show tolerance towards people of differing opinions and behaviors, even those whom we don't agree with. All members are expected to show tolerance in their interaction both inside and outside the URC.

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

Our core values is also reflected in our Code of Conduct which can be viewed on our website (Unitedrodents.com) and on our public page: "URC - United Rodent Community". If you have any questions please feel free to reach out to us on these platforms.

